

Youth Driver's Training Program

The Driver's Test Preparation Program is a partnership between Westbank First Nation and Drivewise Driving School. This program is designed to help new drivers gain the confidence and skill that they need in order to become properly licensed drivers under the graduate program. There are 2 program options available to participants. WFNYP will compensate upto a maximum of $800 per student for lessons.

Please check which option will best suit your needs:

- 2-hour lesson – road test preparation
- 6-hour package – this on-road training session can be used for beginning drivers or for drivers nearing their road test.
- 12-hour package – this package is similar to the 6-hour package, but also includes hazard avoidance maneuvers. (it is the responsibility of the family to pay the difference for this package)

Eligibility:

- This program is for WFN members only
- Participants must have obtained their Learners Permit
- Recommended 40 hours of practical driving experience with a sufficient passenger as per the guidelines under the graduated licensing program
- Driving sessions must be used within a year or it will be the responsibility of the WFN member to pay for the sessions.
- It is the responsibility of the member to pay for their drivers test with ICBC and any other fees associated to their drivers test.

- Difficult maneuvers

Practice in Our Classroom and on the Road

To develop all of your skills, we offer driving and classroom instruction. Our instructors will walk you through the driving test to help you do well on your final exam. In class, you will receive background information about different maneuvers and rules you can apply effectively on the road. We walk you through all necessary information, so you have plenty of chances to learn and improve.

And to demonstrate what you've learned, our instructors will accompany you for practice drives in the city and on the highway.
