

Westbank First Nation Residential Premises Law No.
2008-03 Tenants' Similar Application for Mediation
Section 72

The Westbank First Nation Residential Premises Law states that a mediator must assist the parties to enter into a written agreement that resolves the dispute. The mediator is designated to conduct a mediation of an application referred to in section 72.8 and

- a) all parties to the mediation give consent in writing to the making of an order under this section; and
- b) other landlords or tenants, who are not parties to the mediation but whose disputes raise substantially similar issues in substantially similar circumstances, agree in writing to be bound by the mediation decision.

The matters to be determined are concerning the premises located at:

(insert address of building of residential property, city and postal code)

We, the undersigned tenants, state:

- The applications involve similar disputes with the landlord;
- The applications are being filed under the same section(s) of the Westbank First Nation Residential Premises Law; and
- Each matter in dispute concerns the same landlord and is about the same building, residential property or manufactured home park.

The hearing of other arbitrations under this Part respecting landlords or tenants referred to in Section 61.1(b) are deferred until the mediation is heard and recommendations decided.

As parties to the Mediation Application, the fee of $150.00 prescribed under paragraph 72.1 be paid in respect of the mediation proceeding.
