

Skilled Labourer

Reporting to the Foreman, the Skilled Labourer assumes responsibility for all general labour duties required on commercial scope construction projects ensuring work tasks are performed safely in accordance with Occupational Health & Safety legislation and company policies while ensuring work is performed with a high level of quality and timeliness.

This position is based in the Kelowna, BC area on a client site.

Working Conditions

- 40-hour work week
- Overtime as required
- Working both indoors and outdoors in hot and cold weather conditions
- Working in and around noise and dust

Responsibilities

- Ensure the safe operation of small/light equipment.
- Ensure the safety of your team members.
- General housekeeping, material handling, assisting apprentices and carpenters on site.
- Participate in daily safety meetings.
- Complete daily equipment service checks and complete daily inspection logs (pre-trip inspections).
- Ensure work areas are kept clean and free of hazards.
- Ensure tools and equipment are returned to job boxes and tool cribs.
- Follow instructions of the Superintendents/Foreman.
- Other tasks and labour duties as required on the job site.

Qualifications

- High school diploma an asset
- Experience as a construction labourer
- Willing to join the CLAC Union
- CSTS, WHIMIS and First Aid an asset
- Pre-site Drug and Alcohol testing
- General construction safety knowledge including assisting carpenters, jack hammering, demolition, site clean up and hoarding
- Ability to take direction and follow through on instructions
- Ability to work collaboratively
- Superior written and verbal communication skills
- Superior focus on customer satisfaction
- Committed dedication to safety; reflected in practice and experience
- Strong focus on customer satisfaction
- A team player with strong people skills

Physical Requirements

- Stand or walk for long periods of time
- Use arms and hands to reach for, handle or manipulate objects
- Lift and carry materials weighing up to 50lbs.; occasionally lift items weighing more than 50lbs. with assistance
- Climb up and down ladders, scaffolds and other objects
- Exposure to hazards such as heights, power tools, slips, falls, falling objects, and sharp hand tools
- Work at great heights

Compensation and Benefits

- Overtime is compensated per the collective agreement

Why Choose Stuart Olson?

Safety, Sustainability, Collaboration, and Integrity are core Company values that encourage innovation and make a lasting difference in meeting the goals of our stakeholders and the communities in which we operate. Stuart Olson strongly supports and encourages employees to get involved and give back in their local communities. We expect our employees to bring their best to work every day and in return, management recognizes and rewards employees for their valued contribution through competitive compensation, robust benefits, health & wellness programs, and learning development opportunities. At Stuart Olson we are committed to creating a culture built on a passion to do great things.

Who We Are?

Stuart Olson has been positively impacting the businesses we serve, the communities in which we operate, and the lives we touch since 1911. Our rich history demonstrates our reach and diversity as an integrated, full service organization serving the commercial and industrial markets.

We are a fully integrated commercial construction and industrial services provider with offices in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, and Ontario. We deliver confidence through a client-centered approach that ensures the highest quality of service, reduces risk and delivers results.

Application Instructions: All interested candidates can apply directly to the position at www.stuartolson.com/careers. Only candidates being considered for an interview will be contacted directly.

Unsolicited resumes and phone inquiries from 3rd party agencies will not be accepted.